

HERE WE ARE

Words & Music by Dave Sheriff ©Stomp Music & Publishing

Here we are – as close as our two bodies will allow
There we go - melting in each others arms - trying hard to let our feelings known
Sweethearts once – then slowly we became more than just good friends
As our bodies sway together I can't help but wonder - why these evenings ever have to end

Here we are – bringing back the memories we once knew
There we go – remembering the happy times and knowing that somebody cares for you
A life of love is all two hearts could ever hope to share
Understanding our misgivings – smiling at the bad times
And knowing for each other we are there

Chorus

Here we are – there we go - happy times – sometimes low
Life's too short to waste with tears - here we are – we're all here

Instrumental

Mod

We're all here
